The Cheyenne's Cross Yellowstone.

National Associated Press to the Star.

BISMARCK, D. T., Oct. 24.—It was definitely learned by the arrival of Mrs. Gen. Miles and officers from Miles' command, that the Cheyennes had crossed Yellowstone on the 13th inst., seventeen miles east of Fort Keogh. Ten companies of the Second Cavalry were dispatched the following day with a faint hope of capturing them in the Buffalo fields south of the Missouri. It is sarcastically commented upon that the Indians could have traveled the way from the Indian Territory to the Yellowstone before Gibbon could send a dispatch to Miles to intercept them; and it is hinted that Gibbon's jealousy of Miles led to his neglect.

TILDEN-HAZELTINE.

A General Denial All Around.

National Associated Press to the Star.

St. Louis, Oct. 24.—The Globe-Democrat yesterday morning announced, authoritatively, that the wedding of Hon. S. J. Tilden and Miss Nellie Hazeltine, of this city, would occur within three months. An Evening Post reporter called upon Miss Hazeltine, and was informed by her that there is not a particle of truth in the statement. She says that she has never even met Mr. Tilden, and, besides, would not marry a man so much older than herself; Miss Hazeltine is twenty-one. Mr. Otis Hall, society editor of the Globe-Democrat, now positively affirms that he made the announcement on the authority of Miss Hazeltine herself, who sent for him and gave him the facts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Mr. Gorham, Secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee, said yesterday that the statement in the Washington Post that the Committee, or any one in its behalf, had furnished money for or advised the purchase of arms for South Carolina is utterly false, as is also the charge that the Committee, or any member or officer thereof, had counseled any breach of peace or any other unlawful act in that or any other State.

PRAIRIE FIRES.

A Town Reduced to Ashes.

Fearful Loss of Life and Property.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 24.—Terrible reports are coming in from the West of the ravages of prairie fires. The grass is very dry, and the wind so high that farmers have been afraid to burn around their premises for fear of the fire getting away from them. A report came yesterday that Albion, in Boone County, a town of two hundred and fifty inhabitants, had been swept from the face of the earth; not a house is left standing. The report lacks confirmation.

In Nuckalls County John Benson, a young man, accompanied by Maria Crozier, a young lady, were overtaken by the flames near the Webster County line. Being unable to get away from them they drove through them. Their horses became unmanageable and threw the occupants of the wagon out. The lady was burned to death, and her corpse was scarcely recognizable. The man had his eyes burned out and was otherwise disfigured, but he will recover. There is a report of a big fire near Kearney, in which six persons were burned to death. In this and other counties immense loss of property has occurred, more than in any previous year.

In North Loup Valley the destruction was terrible. Some fifty families have been burned out, some of them losing houses, stock and everything. Albert Cotelet, of Davis Creek, who was fighting the fire, became surrounded by flames and perished. Morse and William Green, in attempting to save him, were terribly burned.

SIOUX CITY, IA., Oct. 24.—Numerous reports of losses by the disastrous prairie fire, which occurred in the southeastern part of this county Sunday night and Monday are coming in. An immense amount of grain, hay in stack, corn in fields, and fencing were destroyed, and several farmers lost their buildings, live stock and machinery. No lives lost so far as head from. A large extent of the country was burned over, and the damage would have been much greater but for a rain storm, which put a stop to the spread of the flames.

ACCIDENT AND ATROCITY.

HUNTING DOWN HAZARD.

FORT WAYNE, IND., Oct. 24.—George A. Hazard, the defaulting Cashier of the Auburn Bank, was arrested here yesterday on the charge of forgery, preferred by Thomas Mays, editor of the Auburn Courier. SINKING OF A SCHOONER.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 24.—The schooner Mary Tice, owned by George C. Blair & Son and Robert Tullock, formerly of New York and latterly of New Haven, sank with her cargo about two miles from New Haven Light-house yesterday forenoon. Captain Tullock, in attempting to prepare a boat for the use of the crew in case of foundering, was drowned, and the Steward, George Lee, was drowned while clinging to the main sheet. Two other sailors clung to the rigging for seven hours, being rescued by the schooner J. L. Crosslee, of Windsor, Nova Scotia. Nothing of the cargo or effects were saved.

A NICE PROSPECTIVE SON-IN-LAW.

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—George Spears, homeopathic physician of Charlestown, was arrested as an accomplice of Miss Mabel Whitman, yesterday, aged sixteen, whose mother died last week of arsenic poison. The daughter will be arrested on her return from the funeral of her mother. Dr. Spears is the son-in-law of Miss Mabel, and it is thought the murder was planned to secure a fortune of $25,000, which was left by Mr. Whitman. There is a strong feeling here against Dr. Spears.

The Badness of Rev. Monroe N. Lord—Strange Story of Langford's Nose.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—A bill was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crane, from Michigan, against their pastor, Rev. Monroe N. Lord, whom they charge with swindling them in inducing them to invest $16,400 in worthless and uncumbered lands, representing them to be good and title clear. Howell Strong filed a similar bill against Rev. Lord and others.

Joseph Langford, while standing in the door of Rheinbold & Maack's drug store, North Side, yesterday afternoon, was struck by a heavy pane of glass which fell from the hands of a glazier working in the second-story window. His nose was completely severed from his face, but it was quickly replaced and sewed on by a surgeon who happened to be in the store at the time.

OLD WOODWARD.

UNVEILING OF THE MONUMENT.

Programme of the Exercises To-day.

This afternoon has been set apart to-day for the unveiling of the monument, erected to the memory of Wm. Woodward, founder of the Woodward High School.

A full description of the monument and a biography of the late Mr. Woodward has been published in our columns of yesterday.

The exercises to-day were as follows:

This morning at 9 o'clock the foot-ball game took place at the Base-ball Park, the contestants being old Woodward boys and young Woodward graduates.

Never was Olympus the scene of more excitement and interest than was felt at this game. At 9 o'clock a large number of old and young Woodward were on the field. While waiting for others to arrive and the ball the greybeards indulged in reminiscences, which were listened to with interest by the young men.

At length Mr. B. O. M. DeBeck arrived with the ball, and, as valuable time was being lost, immediate preparations were made for commencing the sport.

It was agreed that Mr. Owen Owens and Mr. Frank Lawson should captain the opposing sides in the first game, which was a miscellaneous game of old and young.

These gentlemen chose their sides as follows, choosing first from the old Woodwardians present:

OLD WOODWARDS.

Owens—Geo. W. McAlpin, C. T. McCrea, J. W. Hopkins, Ben. Frey, C. O. Edwards, Thos. Fox, Chas. Longley, Aaron Gano, Bob L
